President's Message

Mag-ankayo amin?

Welcome Ilokano and IP (Indo-Pacific) students' to 2012-2013 school year. Hope each and everyone of you had a great summer! It's a great honor to be one of the leaders of our organization. The innovations we have for Timpuyog are tremendously filled with productivity and fun events.

This year we have a new group of officers that will work together and make your college experience memorable. Please come and join us in the events we have already planned for this Fall semester.

Agyamanak unay ken agbiag ni Ilokano!

Meet the Instructional Faculty

Ilokano Language and Literature Program Department of Indo-Pacific Languages and Literature

We welcome our supportive Faculty Members. Besides their hard work in teaching, they are also dedicated in the Timpuyog Organization. Without their understanding and support, Timpuyog wouldn't become what it is today.

UH Manoa Ilokano Video

During the Summer, the upcoming Timpuyog Officers of Fall 2012 and Spring 2013 took on a project that later got them a $2,000 Challenge Grant from The Office Of Multicultural Student Services. The two masterminds behind the achievement of the grant were Benedict Juliano and Loreto Coloma. It was hard since we were always redoing the video, but once we got it down it was perfect!

The video project was given to nearly all the languages at the University of Hawaii at Manoa, including the Tagalog, Samoan, and Micronesian languages. The Timpuyog officers had to memorize scripts written and ideas contributed by AJ Ereno, Jensine Domingo, Loreto Coloma, Benedict Juliano, and then was reviewed by their advisor, Julius Soria, PhD. The amazing actors that gave the video depth were Maribel Julian, Ashley Galacgac, AJ Ereno, Alycia Kiyabu, and George Oliveros. The video was directed for a student and parent audience, more towards the high school seniors and juniors. It educated the parents and their child about getting into the University of Hawaii at Manoa, the types of financial aids available, and also how to apply for FAFSA. The video was an educational video, all in Ilokano with English subtitles. Overall it was an amazing video to make, we got to bond as officers, and to really show off our Ilokano skills. Some people might be camera shy, but it's a whole new level to camera shy when talking in a different language.

Leadership Retreat

Saturday, August 11, 2012 was our Leadership Retreat day at Ala Moana Beach Park. It was a day full of exciting team building games that were facilitated by our fellow officers. We built strong leadership and communication skills. We got to share more about our personalities and became more comfortable with one another. We had a chance to discuss an overview schedule of the whole upcoming year for the Timpuyog Organization. Overall, we gained trust for each other. Coming out of this retreat, we were glad that we learned our strengths and weaknesses. We also found out what we have in common with one another. As a team, we will always be there for one another whenever we encounter obstacles. This is what TIMPUYOG is all about, togetherness!
