Chapter Report

Prepared by: Tamara M. Bronk, Treasurer
October 7, 2002

Chapter activities completed, Spring 2002:

1. Raised funds by co-hosting a Valentines Day Dance on the UH Hilo campus. A portion of the proceeds were donated to the Hawaii Island Food bank.
2. Several members participated in a research project focusing on UH Hilo campus diversity and traveled with our advisor, Catherine Becker, to Honolulu to present the research plans at a diversity conference held at UH Manoa.
3. Held an on-campus food drive to benefit the Hawaii Island Food Bank. Collected and delivered over 160 lbs of nonperishable food items as well as monetary donations.
4. Inducted four new members at our May ceremony. Congratulated three graduating members.

Activities in progress, Fall 2002:

1. Elected new officers and established a new recruitment officer position.
2. Will assist with the set-up and activities at the annual University of Hawaii at Hilo journalism symposium.
3. A chapter website is currently being created and a national web link has been placed on the University of Hawaii at Hilo website.
4. Planning to induct five new members in November and congratulate four graduating members.
5. Fundraising will focus on raising money to send some (or all) members to the communication conference held in San Diego, CA next May.
