

University of Hawai'i at Manoa, Department of Special Education

Ph.D. in Education, Exceptionalities

Traineeships Available (Aug. 2007–July 2011)

We are looking for 6 individuals who will devote the next four years to becoming highly qualified special education leaders (e.g., teacher educators) with expertise in distance education, multicultural education, and evidence-based practices

What is Provided:

- * Over $20,000 in support for EACH of the four years of the project
- * A one time stipend for technology of $2,000 per student
- * Intensive support and advising from professors with expertise in distance education, multicultural education, and evidence-based practices
- * Faculty mentorship in special education research and professional development

Program Requirements:

- * Commitment to work in a special education leadership position in the United States (or its jurisdictions) for 2 years for each year of tuition assistance
- * Intensive coursework focusing on distance education, multicultural education, and evidence-based practices in special education
- * Maintaining a 3.0 GPA or better
- * Enrollment in at least 6 semester hours of program course requirements each semester
- * Completion of degree requirements (including dissertation) within 4 years

ACT NOW: APPLICATION DEADLINE IS JUNE 15

For further information contact Dr. Mary Jo Noonan at noonan@hawaii.edu ASAP