

A Special Invitation to UH-Hilo and HawCC Students

Please join us for a campus visit by

Julian Aguon

Chamoru Author and Activist from Guahan (Guam)

and student at the UH Richardson School of Law in Honolulu

September 5, 2008 (Friday)

4pm Presentation in UCB 127 (Ho'oulu Terrace)

on the human rights struggle of indigenous Chamoru, self-determination, and the militarization of Guahan (Guam)

Followed by a talk-story session with refreshments

Sponsored by UH-Hilo Kīpuka Native Hawaiian Student Center; Pacific Islands Studies Certificate Program; History Dept; Division of Student Affairs. Please contact Drew Kapp (dkapp@hawaii.edu) for additional information.

