All showings are FREE and open to the public

This 82 minute film connects the military occupation of Hawai'i to the fraudulence of statehood, dispossessing Hawaiians of their lands, the Akaka Bill, homelessness, desecration of sacred sites, destroying the environment and more.

The film features interviews with Haunani-Kay Trask, Kaleikoa Ka'eo, Noenoe Silva, Keanu Sai, J. Kehaulani Kauanui and others.
