

hands hands
the finger and palms presspressing down the power circle and around shoulder to shoulder; hand on hand the wheel of life is spinning, and the father is the son uply rising earth is the fire of the stars and in this heart of mine are the fathers of before fingers and pressing palms beforefore till now, and after again; chain unbroken one star in the sky and whowho am i open the door and show me the key the starfire wonder is the one with the hands but whose hands are these that came beforefore hands on my head, hands on my heart the power of the son is the songbreaker i earthly molten fire and the stars will lead the way because in this beating heart of mine are the fathers of before downly pressing circle the power is around and in this chain unbroken is the father, son and i death before birth is the way of the stars phoenix me this and phoenix me that the starfire earth is in these hands, and wonder is the way songbreaker i; earthmaker why rain and weatherwind leading to the heart felt fire the circles of the son are in these hands of mine and in this earthstar beating heart are the fathers of before hand on shoulder, hand on hand hands on head, hands on heart the door is the heart the hands are the key the starfire wonder is the one who is me but these before hands are not here to see molten fire and earthly stars the way is the circle

rain wind and the fire earth the circles of the son are in this birth, death is birth in the way of the stars and in this hand held beating heart the fathers came before this spinning life is a wheel of hands; the father is the son rain wind and earth fire the circle was before whose stars are these in this hand held heart of mine the hands all hold me now starfire earth is the wonderway, and the songbreaker is the who earthmaker why; hands circle i rising death and setting birth; the sun and the moon in the sky earthly molten fire and the leading star is the way for in this earth made starfire heart the fathers came before the uply rising earth is in this heartfire star and in this circle of birth the fathers came before for in this chain unbroken is the father son and i and even though the weatherwind rains, came fathers of before

the circle comes round again so in this beating heart are sons, the starfire fathers of before
