Graduation Luau was a Blast
Over 180 Alumni, Students and Guests Attend

Thanks to the hard work of Co-chair Malia Schreck '05 and Co-chair/Emcee Ming Chi '05, the Law School's Class of 2006 got a big sendoff, as they head toward finals and their May 15th graduation. Over 180 alumni, students, faculty and guests joined in the festivities of the Class's graduation luau at Bishop Museum's Atherton Halau.

Lieutenant Governor James "Duke" Aiona congratulated the Class on its achievements and reflected over the 25 years since he graduated from the Law School in 1981. The Lt. Governor reminded the graduates of the importance of maintaining balance in their lives after law school, especially by making and maintaining strong relationships. He also stressed the importance of alumni giving back to their communities, whether through careers (Continued on page 3)

Working on Alumni Directory for 2006-07
Please Kokua

In the coming weeks the Law School and Alumni Association will be sending you an alumni directory information up-date form. Please up-date or confirm your directory and contact information promptly so we can print our Directory in 2006. Even if the info on your form is correct or you do not want to be listed, please return the form anyway, so we are certain our information is up to date. Indicate on the form if you don’t want to be listed. Sending in your form will save our Directory Committee from having to contact you individually to determine your wishes. Directories will be available without additional cost to our dues-paid members.

If your law firm or other business would like to receive broad exposure to a receptive audience, please consider advertising in our directory. Information on advertising will be sent out with our directory information solicitations.
Tribute To Prof. Chris Iijima

Introduction by Shawn L.M. Benton ’05:

We have heard how Chris Iijima fought for social justice while living in New York City and stories of his activism in the anti-war and Asian American movements. We were awed when we saw the video of Chris singing on the “Mike Douglas Show” hosted by John Lennon and Yoko Ono and heard the music he wrote as a member of the music group, Yellow Pearl, or on his own.

We have also witnessed Chris’s accomplishments as a professor at the William S. Richardson School of Law. We were lucky to have him continue the legacy of the illustrious line of Pre-Admission Directors. However, there is something that hides deep within each of Chris’s students that only they know – the lasting impact he had on each of their lives.

Since Chris’s passing, reaching into that part of the soul and telling that story has been difficult for some. A few of Chris’s former students were willing to share reflections on how he affected their lives.

Please see our website: www2.hawaii.edu/~lawalum/ for these thoughtful and heartfelt reflections.

Alumni Tidbits
If you have any news you would like to share with fellow alumni, just send the information by mail or by e-mail at lawalum@hawaii.edu

1981, 1985 and 1987 -- Congratulations to Jan K. Apo ’81 (District Court, Second Circuit), Linda Martell ’87 (District Family Court, First Circuit) and Alvin Nishimura ’85 (District Court, First Circuit), who were recently reappointed as per diem judges.

1986 – Kudos to Linda Rose, who was listed among Tennessee’s top 150 lawyers for the second year in a row by Business Tennessee and was selected in a survey of Nashville attorneys as among the “Best of the Bar.” Linda, who practices immigration law in Nashville (the “Athens of the South”), says she is convinced that the solid legal education she received at the WSRSL gave her the foundation for achievement and that she is proud to be the only lawyer in Nashville with a law diploma in the Hawaiian language.

1991 – Our thanks to Devika (Seth) Dubey for a recent update. She is currently serving as a Senior Trial Attorney for the U.S. EEOC in Dallas and as an Adjunct Professor of Law at Texas Wesleyan Univ. School of Law and an Adjunct Professor of Management at the University of North Texas. She will be pursuing an LL.M. at Georgetown Univ. Law Center this coming fall, in labor and employment law.

1992 – Best wishes to Richard Sakoda, upon joining Judith Sterling ’80 and Michelle Tucker ’81 as a partner in the Law Firm of Sterling and Tucker. Richard is the first new partner in the firm’s 15-year history. Richard has been an associate with the firm since 1996, and has practiced in the areas of estate planning, disability planning and probate and trust law since 1993.

1995 -- Congratulations to Ben Majoe, admitted in February as a Barrister and Solicitor in Western Australia. After leaving Hawaii, where he had practiced family law in Waipahu, Ben had to complete an additional year of legal study at Murdoch University and a period of “articles” before being eligible for admission to the Australian Bar.

Law School Report

Jessup International Law Moot Court team. The memorials (briefs) submitted by this year’s WSRSL Jessup team were ranked best in the United States and second best in the entire world (out of 93 teams)! Congratulations to team members Becky Gardner 3L, Molly Stebbins 3L, Nathan Okubo 3L, Lindsay McAneeley 2L, and Robin Scott 2L and faculty advisor, Jon Van Dyke! The team had won the best memorial award and Molly had been named the third best oralist in regional competition at Chapman Law School in February. This year’s issue related to the impact of the development of oil fields on indigenous peoples.
THE WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON SCHOOL OF LAW ALUMNI ASSOCIATION is made up of Law School alumni. Our principal source of funds to carry out our programs is the $20 annual dues paid by alumni. We also receive a portion of dues paid by alumni to the UHAA. Unless you joined very recently, current membership status is indicated by a “Y” on your mailing label. You can also check your membership status on our website.
