Politics in Paradise

A DOCUMENTARY MOVIE
BY ANDREA DEAN

In 2002, Andrea Dean and her camera set out on the campaign trail to learn more about local government and the people who run for public office. She did it all... fundraisers, forums, canvassing, strategy meetings, sign waving, election parties and more. The film features interviews with candidates, elected representatives and average citizens. Politics in Paradise is an inside look at campaigns, candidates and Hawaii's unique flavor of politics.

Please join us for a showing of the film interspersed with dynamic facilitated discussion!

Wednesday, October 27, 2004 * 6:00 - 9:00 pm
Maui Community College, Student Lounge

Event Sponsored by: League of Women Voters- Maui MAL, Hawaii Institute for Human Rights, Maui Community College Peace Club.
