*James S. Williston, or Jim as he is affectionately known, has been chosen as this year's Distinguished Alumnus. Jim was born in Chicago but lived in Japan for six years and then immigrated to the islands in his youth and is a product of Kailua High School. He did his undergraduate work at the University of Puget Sound, where he studied Math and Political Science before attending the William S. Richardson School of Law--class of 78.

Jim is credited with resurrecting the Richardson Law Alumni Association and is portrayed by his fellow alum as being the "life-blood of the association." He has served as president of the association from 83 to 86 and again in 88 to 90. He is currently serving as the association's secretary as well as coordinator of the newsletter, golf tournament director, and Ete Bowl coach. Dean Emeritus Larry Foster describes Jim as "a tireless supporter of the law school." For all of your exceptional efforts we salute you, Jim Williston!
