*(Jesus answered, I am the way and the truth and the life)

*(No one comes to the Father except through me).
Alice Yun Chai was born as Young Koo Yun on 7/10/1928 as the oldest child of 7 siblings (5 sons and 2 daughters) of Dr. Il Sun Yun and Margaret Young Sook Cho. She graduated from Kyunggi Girls High School on 1945 and graduated from Seoul National University in 1950 majoring in music. She worked for the U.S. Air Force Chaplain as an interpreter working for Korean War orphans from 1950 to 1952. She came to the U.S. in January 1952 to attend Ohio Wesleyan University by recommendation of Dr. William Show, a Methodist Missionary in Korea from U.S. She graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in January 1955 and married Korean student Hi Chang Chai, who was a graduate student of Mechanical Engineering at the Ohio State University and son of a Minister of Oriental Missionary Society Church who was abducted by the North Koreans during the Korean War.

She received her M.A. degree and Ph.D. degrees from the Ohio State University in Anthropology in 1957 and 1962, respectively. She and her husband returned to Korea in 1959. She taught Anthropology at Ewha Womans University and Seoul National University from 1959 and 1963. She worked for the East West Center and taught at the Women’s Studies Program of the University of Hawaii. Hi Chang Chai passed away in 2001. She and her husband were members of Christ United Methodist Church since 1963. After her retirement, she has been working for the Chungshindae ("Comfort Women") Movement globally with Korean and other Asian feminists. Her research publications focus on Asian immigrant women, Asian American and Asian Women. She received God’s calling May 9, 2011.
