

GRANTS RECEIVED

Extra-mural:

- Co-Principal Investigator, Hawaii Pregnancy, Birth Control and Abortion Study (Hawaii State Legislature, 1970; The Population Council, 1971; National Institute of Child Health and Human Development, 1971-1975; Department of Health, State of Hawaii, 1973-1974.)
- Co-investigator, Subsequent Effects of Abortion Study (National Institute of Child Health and Human Development contract, 1975-1981).
- Co-organizer, Workshops on Conflict in Japan and co-editor, conference volume (Social Science Research Council, 1976-1982).
- Director (P.I.), National Resource Center for East Asia, and National Resource Fellowships (U.S. Department of Education, 1984-1985).
- Director (P.I.), National Resource Fellowships for East Asia, (U.S. Department of Education, 1985-1988).
- Director, National Resource Center for East Asia and National Resource Fellowships (U.S. Department of Education, 1988-1994).
- Principal Investigator, Critical Foreign Languages Program (a series of four grants to develop proficiency-based instructional materials for use in elementary, secondary and college level courses in Chinese and Japanese, plus teachers' workshops and other proficiency training workshops funded by the U.S. Department of Education, 1985-1989).
- Director, North East Asia Council Grant Programs (a re-grant program funded by a grant from Japan U.S. Friendship Commission to the North East Asia Council, Association for Asian Studies, 1984-1987).
- Director (P.I.), Japan Directory Project, 1987-1989 (Contract from the Japan Foundation to the Association for Asian Studies to produce a Directory of Japan Specialists and Japanese Studies Institutions in the United States and Canada, and a Follow-Up Study of Japan Foundation Fellowship grantees, 1972-1986.)
- Director (P.I.), Japan Directory Project, 1993-1996 (Contract from the Japan Foundation to the Association for Asian Studies to produce an updated Directory of Japan Specialists and Japanese Studies Institutions in the United States and Canada, and a questionnaire survey of the state of Japanese Studies in the United States and Canada)
- Principal Investigator, Takazawa Collection: Processing, Access, and Research Tools (National Endowment for the Humanities, 1999-2002) to catalog collection into bilingual annotated database and develop bilingual website of the bibliographies.
- Director (P.I.), Japan Directory Project, 2003-2007 (Contract from the Japan Foundation to the University of Hawaii) to collect data from Japan specialists, Japanese Studies institutions, and Japanese Studies librarians in the United States and Canada using web-based instruments, in order to produce and publish an updated Directory of Japan Specialists and Japanese Studies Institutions in the United States and Canada and a survey of the state of Japanese Studies in the United States and Canada as a separate monograph.
- Principal Investigator, Maintenance of Cross Currents Website, 2007-2010 (Japan-United States Friendship Commission) to maintain and continue limited development of the bilingual educational multimedia website Cross Currents.

Director (P.I.) Japan Directory for North America Project, 2010-2013 (Contract from the Japan Foundation to the University of Hawaii) to collect data from Japan specialists, Japanese Studies institutions, and Japanese Studies librarians in the United States and Canada using web-based instruments, in order to produce and publish an updated Directory of Japan Specialists and Japanese Studies Institutions in the United States and Canada which has been posted on a searchable website, plus a survey and monograph on the state of Japanese Studies in the United States, and a separate volume on Japanese Studies in Canada also posted on the website as downloadable pdf files.

Director (P.I.) Update to Japan Directory for North America, 2015-2016 (Contract from the Japan Foundation to the University of Hawaii) to collect limited updated information from Japan specialists, Japanese Studies institutions, and Japanese Studies librarians in the United States and Canada, using the web-based instruments previously developed. Results will be updated on the searchable project website and in the downloadable pdf files that are also posted on the website.

Small Grants and Intramural Support:

To develop data for analysis of politeness levels in Japanese speech, (University of Hawaii Research Council, 1969-1970).

To travel to Japan and the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. to code data on recanting by Japanese Communists (Japan Endowment Fund, University of Hawaii, 1979-1980).

To continue research on Japanese Red Army (Japan Studies Endowment research grant, University of Hawaii, 1985-1986.)

Planning grant for conference on the Showa Emperor and the Showa Era, (SSRC-ACLS Joint Committee on Japanese Studies, 1989) returned.

North East Asia Council, Association for Asian Studies, travel grant to Japan, 1989.

To analyze data from Subsequent Effects of Abortion study (University of Hawaii Research Council, 1989) returned.

To conduct summer research on Japanese Red Army and on Japanese criminal justice system (Japan Studies Endowment summer grant, 1990)

To catalog Japanese books on New Left social movements in the University of Hawaii Takazawa Collection (Japan Studies Endowment research grant, 1994-1995)

To conduct additional research on Japanese Red Army and prepare annotations of books in the Takazawa Collection with Kōji Takazawa (Japan Studies Endowment summer grant, 1995)

To catalog Japanese serials from New Left social movements in the University of Hawaii Takazawa Collection (Japan Studies Endowment research grant, 1996-1997).

To develop and test data collection procedures for event history analysis of Japan's protest cycle of late 1960s to early 1970s using mass media and mini-media sources in Japanese (Program on Conflict Resolution, University of Hawaii, 1998; 1999)

To conduct event sequence analysis of protest events in the Japanese protest wave of the late 1960s and early 1970s, comparing mass media and mini-media accounts of key protest events (Japan Studies Endowment research grant, 2001-2002)

To prepare Takazawa Collection annotated bibliographies for print publication (Japan Studies Endowment research grant, 2002-2003).

- To begin implementation of the Crosscurrents bilingual multimedia educational website project (CULCON/Japan US-Friendship Commission, 2002-2003).
- To continue implementation of the Crosscurrents bilingual multimedia educational website. (CULCON/Japan-US Friendship Commission, 2003-2004).
- To examine creativity in technology usage based on use of Crosscurrents website by teachers and students in Japan and the U.S., (Technology, Innovation and Society grant, 2004-2006).
- To complete group translation of Takazawa Kōji, Shukumei: 'Yodogō' Bōmeishatachi no Himitsu Kosaku, and prepare manuscript for publication. (UH Japan Studies Endowment grant, 2005-2006).
- To begin processing and cataloguing new materials donated to the Takazawa Collection (UH Japan Studies Endowment grant, 2007-2008).
- To pay shipping costs for new additions to Takazawa Collection and travel expenses of donors to assess materials in Honolulu (UH Japan Studies Endowment special project grant, 2007-2008).
- To cover printing costs for producing print bibliographies of Takazawa Collection for the donor, Takazawa Koji as part of contract obligations regarding the collection (UH Japan Studies Endowment special project grant, 2012-2014).
- To ship final installment of Takazawa Collection materials from Japan and begin cataloguing. (UH Japan Studies Endowment grant 2016-2017).
- To provide bridge funding for cataloguing of new items in the Takazawa Collection (UH Japan Studies Endowment grant, 2018-2019).